Our History

Nick Kappas emigrated from Greece in 1913 and settled in Roanoke. After the VPI vs. VMI annual football game in Roanoke, VPI cadets who frequented a restaurant where Kappas worked, persuaded him to move to Blacksburg to open his own business.

He started a restaurant in 1921 in this building, and the business continues today. The restaurant has had several different names, but has always been called "the Greeks" by its loyal customers.

*Today it is known as
The Cellar Restaurant & 6-Pak.*

The original Cellar Restaurant in 1921 was known as "The Blue Ribbon Cafe"
